

VICE ADMIRAL VASILIOS MARTZOUKOS H.N.

He entered the Naval Academy in 1971 and was graduated in 1975. He was retired in 2006.

During the 16 years of his sea duty V. Admiral Martzoukos served on Destroyers, Fast Patrol Boats with Missiles (FPBG) and Frigates. He has also served as Commanding Officer (C.O.) at FPBG BLESSAS and Frigate ELLI, as C.O. of 1st Frigates Division, as Chief of Staff of the Fleet and as C.O. of the Frigates Command.

During his 11 years of service ashore, V. Admiral Martzoukos was appointed at the Artillery School of Hellenic Navy (H.N.) as a trainer, he served at Elefsis Shipyards during the landing ships «CHIOS» type project, as Naval Aid to the President of the Hellenic Republic (1990 – 1992), as Director of Studies in the Hellenic Naval War College (H.N.W.C.), as Naval Attache in Bonn (Germany), as Planning Director in Hellenic Navy General Staff, as C.O. at Souda Naval Base and as C.O. at the Hellenic Naval Academy.

V. Admiral Martzoukos has attended successfully all service schools of the H.N., including the H.N.W.C. and has also attended several NATO seminars. He is a graduate from Naval War College (RI - USA). He has received a Master's degree in Weapons Engineering at Naval Postgraduate School (CA – USA), and a Master's degree in International Relations and Strategic Studies at Panteion University of Athens.

From 2006 to 2010 he worked as General Director of the Yacht Club of Greece. Vice Admiral V. Martzoukos is the President of the Hellenic Institute for Strategic Studies. He is associated with the Hellenic National Defence College and the Institute of International Relations (Panteion University). He participates in lectures and seminars and writes articles in magazines and websites.

He is married since 1979 and has two children.