

Agios Andreas Athens

Accommodation

The Army Summer Resort can provide 24 rooms. Each of them has the possibility to accommodate 1 to 4 persons. They consist of a bedroom, bathroom, living room with folding beds and a small kitchen with refrigerator. All the rooms have tv and air condition. Climbers members: With the accommodation can be reserved the breakfast. Payment: Cash or credit card.

See the resort at the map

International Airport of Athens

Restaurant & Tavern

In the resort there is a restaurant, where every guest can choose between variety of meals and there is a canteen – bar area, where you can find everything from morning coffee to evening drinks, as well as, ice-creams, cheesepies, croissants and a variety of drinks. At night bar visitors are served refreshments and drinks in a terrace with sea view. Payment: Cash or credit card.

Facilities

On this side of the Attic coast the unprecedented hospitable natural environment, organized with great care and love by the human factor covers all human needs for recreation and resting: quiet strolls in paths embellished by green pine trees, enjoying supplementary works of natural beauty, courts for adults and children, playground, outdoor cinemas for adults and children, restaurant, cafeterias, all harmonically organized to cover fully and safely the needs of all ages.

Location

The resort is located in the NE part of the Prefecture of Attica, in the prefecture of Nea Makri. It is open during summer time for the holidays of the military and civilian personnel of the Army. Its facilities have been refurbished for the 2004 Olympic Games, to host foreign Journalistic Agencies. Its operation period spans from May 25 to the beginning of October of each year.

